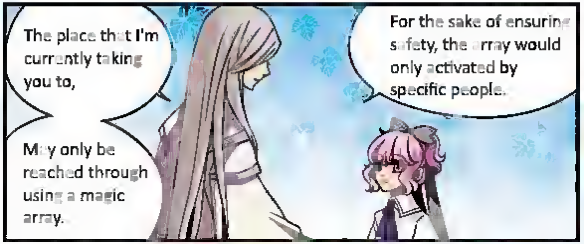
ACT 70. "The World" and "The Tree

Big brother.....
I'm here.

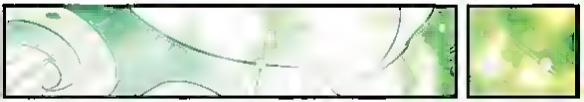
Come over here, Aisela.

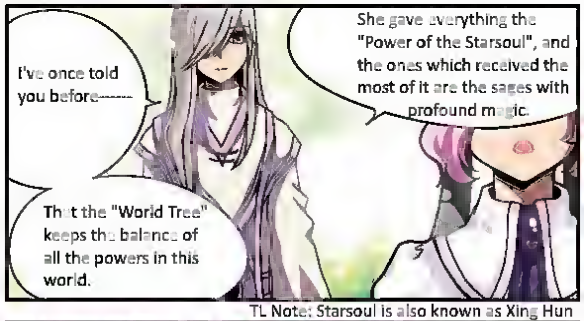


The place that I'm currently taking you to,
May only be reached through using a magic array.
For the sake of ensuring safety, the array would only activated by specific people.

Are the sages, all there?
Yes. Come a bit closer.

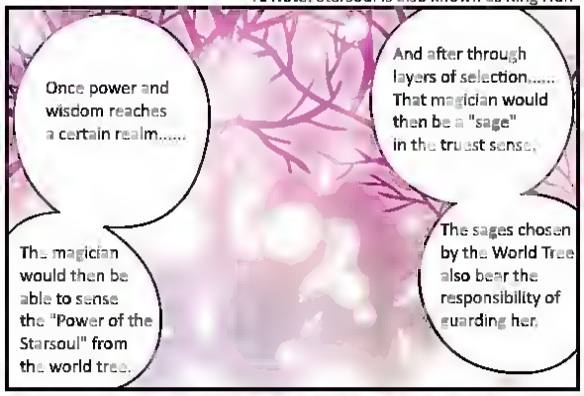
SFX:Whoosh



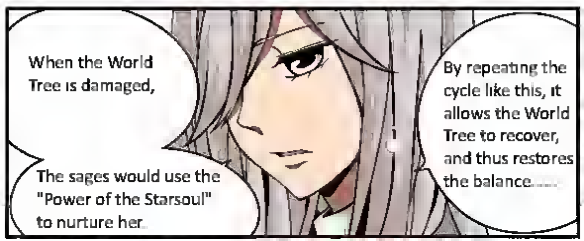


I've once told you before------
That the "World Tree" keeps the balance of all the powers in this world.
She gave everything the "Power of the Starsoul", and the ones which received the most of it are the sages with profound magic.

TL Note: Starsoul is also known as Xing Hun

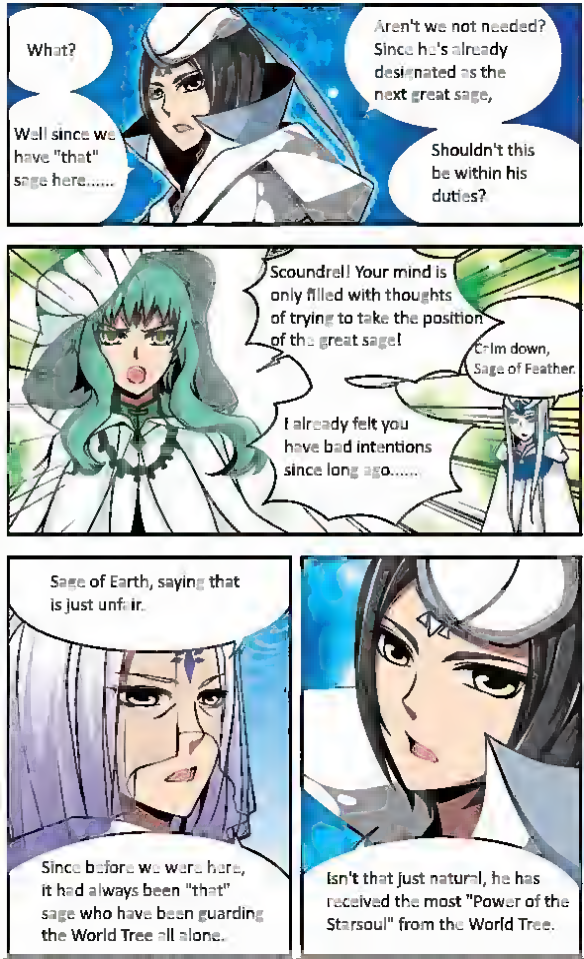


Once power and wisdom reaches a certain realm.....
The magician would then be able to sense the "Power of the Starsoul" from the world tree.
And after through layers of selection..... That magician would then be a "sage" in the truest sense.
The sages chosen by the World Tree also bear the responsibility of guarding her.



When the World Tree is damaged,
The sages would use the "Power of the Starsoul" to nurture her.
By repeating the cycle like this, it allows the World Tree to recover, and thus restores the balance.....

Therefore, the World Tree must have the existence of sages by her side.
To ensure that she's able to recover from harm at once.
This is the reason, why the academy would always have one or two sages.
For example, our mother------ She was the Sage of Flames.
Mom.....
So the reason why mom rarely ever went far away was because of this.....
Enough.
The demands from this tree are endless.
Wait!
Travis!



What?
Well since we have "that" sage here.....
Aren't we not needed? Since he's already designated as the next great sage,
Shouldn't this be within his duties?
Scoundrel! Your mind is only filled with thoughts of trying to take the position of the great sage!
Calm down, Sage of Feather.
I already felt you have bad intentions since long ago.....
Sage of Earth, saying that is just unfair.
Since before we were here, it had always been "that" sage who have been guarding the World Tree all alone..
Isn't that just natural, he has received the most "Power of the Starsoul" from the World Tree.

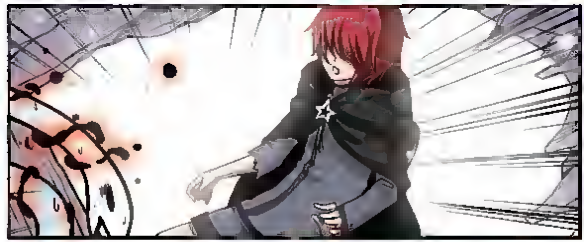
What are they arguing about?
They have different opinions towards the selection of the next great sage.....
Right, big brother you just said that, there's always a prescence of a sage residing within the academy.
But, as far as I know..... Since mom passed away till now.....

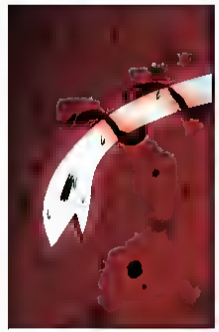
The academy hasn't had any sages?
Could big brother you------
The headmaster..... is never the sage, Aisela.
Then, the sage that has always been within the academy, who.....
Just over there.
He has always been by our side.
What happened?

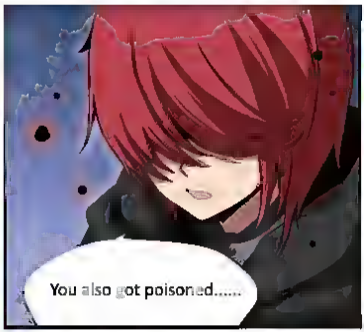
行礼.....
You're here, Sage of Forest.
Tsk.
SFX: Salute.....
He's------

Senior Yunyang?!

Nn....
Xiao Fu?
Xiao Fu?
Your body is?!





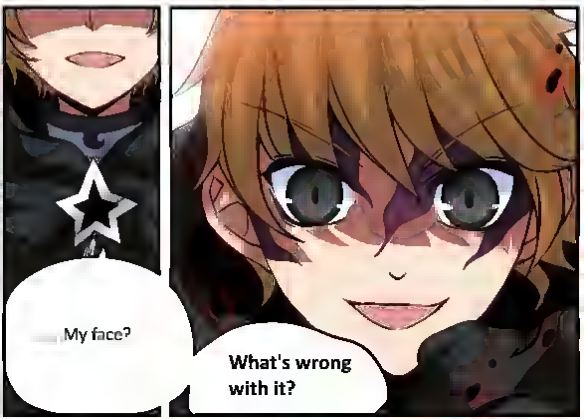


You also got poisoned.....

I finally found you,
Classmate Salaman.

Aisela really is.....
How could she leave you alone in this dangerous cliff?
Come, leave with me. I'll take you to a safer place.

What happened to your face?



My face?
What's wrong with it?

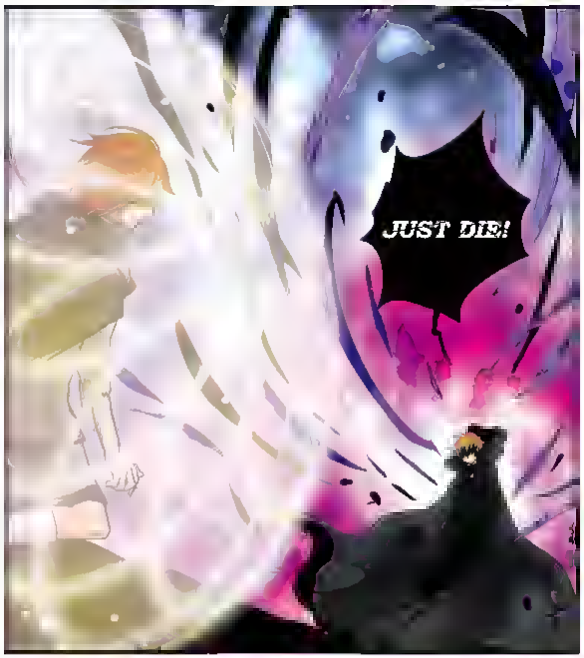
Aaaaah.....
This..... Looks like i can no longer suppress the power

This appearance of mine, is all because of you!
Classmate Salaman!
For the sake of gaining power that can kill you, I had become like this.....

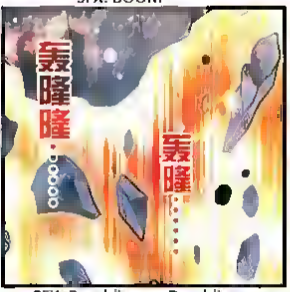


JUST DIE!

SFX: Neutralized.....

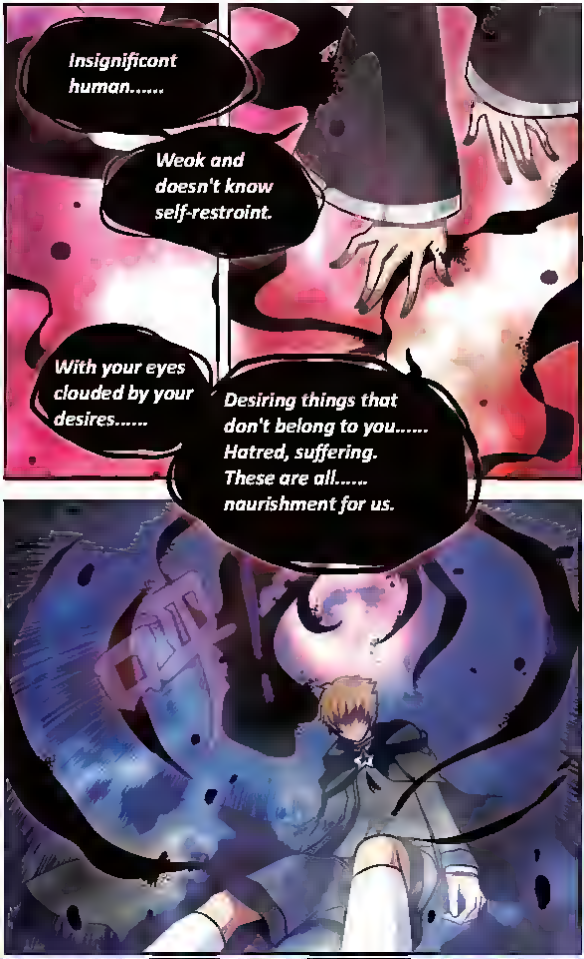
SFX: AAAAAAAAAH

SFX: BOOM

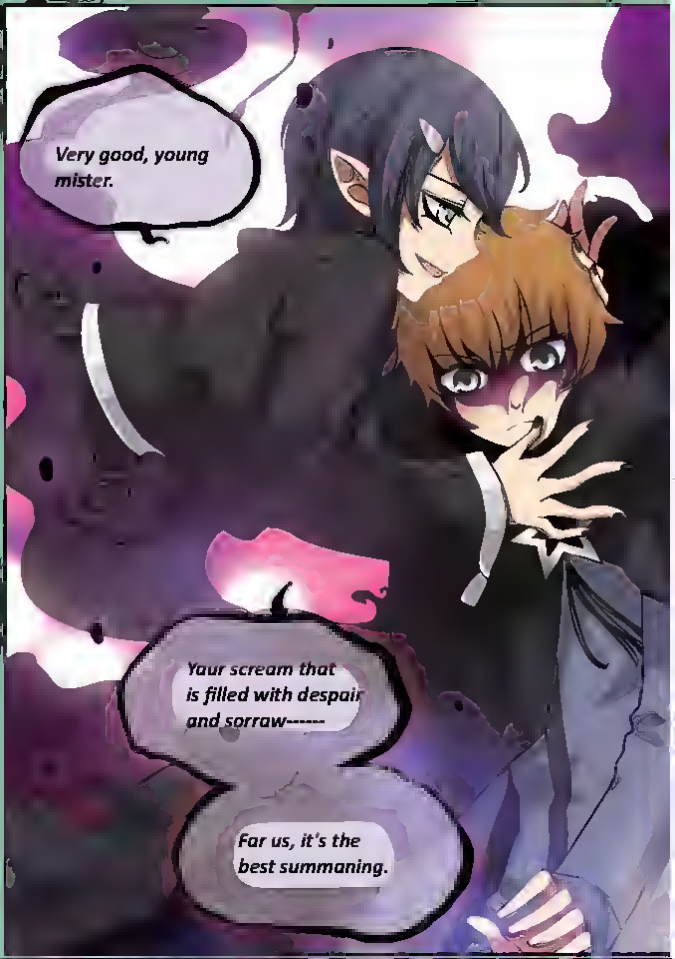


SFX: Rumbling.....Rumbling.....

I still need more power! Give me power!
I need power that can get rid of everything!
Even if..... I HAVE TO USE THIS WORLD TO EXCHANGE FOR IT!
Do you want power?



Insignificont human.....
Weok and doesn't know self-restroint.
With your eyes clouded by your desires.....
Desiring things that don't belong to you..... Hatred, suffering. These are all..... naurishment for us.



Very good, young mister.
Your scream that is filled with despair and sorraw------
For us, it's the best summaning.

Good Luck, Demon King!
